

WESTERN GHATS TREK

This Western Ghats Trek involves a day to explore the Munnar hill station and a challenging trek to Meesapulimala. You will be picked up from Kochi and have an opportunity to explore the famous Munnar hills station and visit the tea museum on the first day. On day 2 you will start very early in the morning. Meesapulimala is the second highest peak in the Western Ghats, at an elevation of 2640 metres. Your trekking route will be the typical terrain of this region, part high altitude rainforest (shola forests) and part grasslands. You will visit the world’s highest tea estate, the Kolukkumalai tea estate. On completion of the trek, you would be transferred to the campsite at Suryanelli.
